New Mitchellville-Dixon Springs Highway Is Nearing Completion

LIVING: Here's a new way of putting it: "Calm down and live!" That's the advice offered to motorists by the New York University's safety education center.

"Nine out of ten smashups would be prevented if we could wipe out their underlying psychological causes, such as anxiety, anger, day-dreaming, impatience, timidity, bravado, and the closely related habit of taking risks," Texaco Topics relates.

The following formula is offered for safe driving:

1. Don't let impatience get the better of your common sense.

2. Don't let daydreaming, worry, or resentment trap you into foolish tricks.

3. Don't let boorish drivers get your goat.

4. Remember that use of the highways is a co-operative, not a competitive, activity.

5. Make courtesy, as well as safety, your goal and give the pedestrian consideration.

And while we're still on the subject of motoring, would like to say right here that I went down on the Mitchellville-to-Dixon Springs highway Sunday.

Although the slab has been laid, the road was not open, except to local traffic.

Up at this end they're still working on the approaches to Route 34 and between Route 34 and Delwood there's considerable shoulder work to be done. Also, for 8 of a mile just before reaching Delwood, you could not drive on the newly-laid pavement, some of it still strawed under, but had to drive in lanes alongside the highway.

And about three miles down there's a gap in the pavement at each end of a bridge.

But south of Delwood grass already was peeping through on the shoulders and there was a lot of guttering that looked to be complete.

At Glendale, where a big bridge is being completed, there is a detour down and around it. And at the approach to Route 146, which runs east and west between Glendale and Vienna, there's a detour on the old gravel road for 8 of a mile.

There's a barricade up at a big fill which carries the new, modern highway into Route 145, that goes on down toward Metropolis and Brookport. This fill and pavement goes right over the east-west Route 146, which intersects the new highway by underpass.

When this road is opened to the public, be sure to take this scenic drive which cuts off about 15 miles from the Metropolis-Paducah area. The S. J. Groves Construction Co. is completing a fine job.

Hi-Y Workshop For Four Schools Is Held at HTHS

A Hi-Y workshop was held Sunday, Nov. 7, at HTHS with the towns of Harrisburg, Eldorado, Norris City, and Carrier Mills present. Carrier Mills was present to see about starting a club in the high school there.

The opening session at 2:30 was begun by Carroll Clark, HTHS senior, who is president of the Southern Illinois District of Hi-Y's. A welcome was also extended to those present by R. L. Foster, HTHS principal. A worship service was then presented by Charles Polk of the Harrisburg Hi-Y and chaplain, Dick Childress, led in prayer.

Following this, Carroll Clark gave an explanation of Youth and Government, which was held at Springfield last spring, and Frank Gumm spoke on discussion groups and program planning. Discussion groups were then led by Hi-Y members from different clubs.

A representative and an alternate to the Southern District of Hi-Y's were also elected at this workshop. Bryan Jones from HTHS was elected representative and a senior from the Eldorado Township high school was chosen alternate.

A luncheon was also prepared and served the Hi-Y members by Miss Alvina Shestak and the following girls: Susie Grammer, Diane Mathis, Dorothy Hanning, and Avah Phillips.

H. B. Bauman is the sponsor of the Harrisburg Hi-Y club.

M'Carthy Group Maps Strategy To Prevent Vote

Draft Substitute Resolution to Tone Down Censure

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Senate source said today friends of Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy are mapping strategy to prevent a vote on the censure resolution against him in its present form.

The informant, who declined to be identified but who is in a position to know the McCarthy camp's strategy, said two alternatives are open:

1. To tone down the present censure resolution.

2. Failing that, to filibuster it to death.

The special Senate session on the McCarthy censure report, which began Monday, must end by Christmas under the terms of a previously adopted agreement. With no limit on debate, McCarthy's supporters could keep talking until the session ended without a vote.

In that case nothing would prevent McCarthy's foes from launching a new censure move against him in the Senate session beginning next January. However, its chances would be slimmer then because Democrats are likely to control the Senate and their leadership has taken the position that McCarthy is a Republican problem.

Draft a Substitute

The spokesman said McCarthy's friends are drafting a compromise substitute for the censure resolution in hopes of attracting votes of some senators who oppose McCarthy but are reluctant to take so drastic a step as censure, which has been invoked against only three senators in history.

Meanwhile, Sen. Wayne Morse lashed out at McCarthy for making an "inexcusable attack" on the chairman of the censure committee.

He said McCarthy was totally out of order in scrapping with Sen. Arthur V. Watkins Monday when the chairman formally presented the Senate with a corrected copy of the committee's censure report.

But McCarthy defended himself to the hilt. Although the quarrel was "completely silly," he said it "performed a service" because it demonstrated Watkins' "personal animosity" toward McCarthy.

Morse and McCarthy spoke out as the Senate declared an uneasy armistice in the formal censure debate to devote today's session to eulogizing three senators who died recently.

Senate leaders hoped to keep the angry dispute in check until Wednesday when Watkins will introduce a formal resolution of censure and the debate will get going full tilt.

Reds Return 66 More Bodies

MUNSAN (AP)—The Communists returned the bodies of 66 fighting men of unknown nationality to the Allies today, saying they were found after the main exchange of Korean war dead had been completed.

The U. S. Army said 62 of the newly-received bodies were those of airmen, and most of them were believed to be American.

Wood to Seek Re-Election as Illinois House Speaker

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—Rep. Warren L. Wood today announced he will seek reelection as speaker of the Illinois House next year.

The Plainfield Republican, who won a new term in the Legislature with no opposition last Tuesday, was House speaker in 1951 and 1953 sessions.

Wood, 44, will launch his tenth two-year term in the House when the 1955 Legislature convenes in January.

Republicans will have a 79-74 House majority and thus will name the speaker. Wood is the only announced candidate so far.

45 Parents Attend Classes for Children at Du Quoin

DU QUOIN, Ill. (AP)—Forty-five parents attended classes at Du Quoin Township high school today while their children slept late at their homes.

The fathers and mothers followed the students' regular class schedules as part of American Education Week observance.

Any student who could persuade his parent to substitute for him was excused for a half day.

Two Children Burn to Death In Locked Auto

CHARLESTON, S. C. (AP)—Two small children were burned to death in their mother's parked and locked automobile Monday while shoppers passed within 50 feet.

Katherine Loughlin, 2, and her brother, Daniel, 4, were left in the car while their mother, Mrs. Donna Loughlin, 22, shopped at a nearby store.

A third child, Daniel's twin brother, Michael, was rescued by a passerby. James L. Meredith, who noticed the smoke-filled vehicle, smashed a window with a stick and pulled out the boy.

The blaze was so hot rescuers could not reach the bodies of the two victims until firemen arrived.

Area Building Unions Pledge To Avoid Strikes

WEST FRANKFORT, Ill. (AP)—Eleven southern Illinois building trades union business agents met here Monday and drew up a "memorandum of understanding" aimed at avoiding strikes.

James Bateman of Murphysboro, chairman of the business agents' group, called the meeting which also was attended by Frank Haske, an official of Servosonics Instrument Co., which is considering location of a plant in the Ordill industrial area west of Marion.

The union representatives said their statement was an assurance of cooperation with all industries planning to locate in southern Illinois.

The statement said in part that it was the desire of the building trades unions affiliated with the American Federation of Labor to "prosecute all work harmoniously and to avoid all strikes, especially jurisdictional strikes or delays detrimental to employer and employee alike."

The statement added that an employer "has great responsibility to prosecute all work by assigning it to the proper trades unions."

Survey Shows Vote Set New Off-Year Record

WASHINGTON (AP)—The nationwide vote in last Tuesday's general election apparently topped the 43-million mark to set a new record for an off-year election, a United Press survey showed today.

A compilation of unofficial returns shows that 43,377,343 voters cast their ballots. This fell short of election-eve predictions of a 45-million vote. But it was well above the mid-term record of 42,462,062 votes which was set in 1950.

The biggest turnout in history was in 1952 when 61,251,244 Americans expressed their opinion in the race between President Eisenhower and Adlai Stevenson.

The turnout was heaviest last week in states where there were the hottest campaigns.

In the Kentucky Senate race between former Vice President Alben Barkley and Republican Sen. John Sherman Cooper, the total vote was estimated at 796,500, a record for an election where neither the presidency nor the state's governorship was at stake.

In New Jersey where 1,297,969 votes were cast in a 1952 Senate race, the total this year totaled 1,717,822 in the race between former Rep. Clifford P. Case, a Republican, and his Democratic opponent, Rep. Charles R. Howell.

Record off-year votes also were cast in Michigan and Washington. The total in Michigan reached 2,170,000 as the result of a hot race between Republican Sen. Homer Ferguson, who was defeated, and Democrat Patrick McNamara. The vote in Washington was an estimated 820,000, or about 63.3 per cent of those registered.

Rock Hurled Through Store Window, Jewelry Is Stolen

A burglar or burglars early today threw a rock through the front show window of Raymond Carroll's jewelry store on North Vine street, scooped up the jewelry items in the window and departed.

City police today were working on the case, trying to learn the identity of the thief or thieves.

Mr. Carroll today said that the following articles were stolen: Five ladies' watches, three men's watches, two diamond ring sets, one wedding ring set, one onyx diamond set and three birthstone rings.

Judge Harlan Nominated to Supreme Court

Two Democrats Praise Selection By Eisenhower

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two Democratic members of the Senate Judiciary Committee today praised President Eisenhower's nomination of a jurist—Appellate Judge John Marshall Harlan—to the Supreme Court.

The White House formally submitted the nomination of Harlan, 55-year-old New York federal circuit court judge and a Republican, to the Senate today. But it was not certain whether the Senate would act on it during the current session on censuring Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy.

The White House also sent to the Senate the nomination of Atomic Energy Commissioner Joseph Campbell as comptroller general. Mr. Eisenhower announced both appointments Monday.

Campbell, 54-year-old New York Republican, was appointed to AEC last year. As comptroller general, Campbell would head the General Accounting Office—"watchdog" for Congress on government financial matters. The term is for 15 years at an annual salary of $17,500.

Sens. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.) and Thomas C. Hennings Jr. (D-Mo.), members of the Judiciary Committee which must approve the appointment, praised the selection of a judge to succeed Justice Robert H. Jackson who died of a heart attack last month. Kefauver said he saw no "difficulties" in the way of Harlan's confirmation.

To Dedicate Ingersoll Marker At Raleigh Nov. 20

The marker furnished by the Illinois State Historical society to be erected at Raleigh, first county seat of Saline county, marking the site of the Robert G. and Ebon C. Ingersoll law office has been received, and the date of Nov. 20 has been set as the time for the dedication ceremonies.

The dedication will be given by the honorable Earl Benjamin Searcy, clerk of the Supreme Court of Illinois, and a host of distinguished guests will be present. The ceremonies will be held in the Raleigh school at 2 p. m. on the 20th.

The two Ingersoll brothers practiced law in Raleigh and Shawnee town before their removal to Peoria in late 1857. Ebon first moved to Peoria, and Robert followed him in January 1858. The deep attachment between the two brothers was the background for one of Robert G. Ingersoll's most eloquent addresses which was made at the funeral rites of his beloved brother. It was on this occasion that "life is a narrow vale between the cold and barren peaks of two eternities." Despite this, it was less than three years later—on January 12, 1862—Robert was to speak at the grave of a child of friends and say that "We cannot say that death is not good. We do not know whether the grave is the end of this life or the door of another, or whether the night here is not somewhere else a dawn."

Robert G. Ingersoll served as Attorney General of Illinois, and there is little doubt but that he would have been nominated for Governor in 1869, at the close of his term as Attorney General, but for his public statement to the Convention that his religious views were his own and he would not change to run for office.

Robert G. Ingersoll was one of the foremost and most eloquent orators ever to grace the American historical scene.

Slashes Wrists In County Jail After Sentence

Paul Kingston, sentenced to eight months on the penal farm yesterday, slashed his wrists at the county jail a short time later but was returned to his cell after treatment and was taken to Vandalia this morning.

Kingston was sentenced to the term on the Vandalia state farm when he pleaded guilty in county court to charges of leaving the scene of an accident. He was arrested at Omaha by state police after he had hit a Michigan car on Route 45 near Ledford and departed.

Kingston also was fined $10 plus $31 court costs on his plea of guilty to reckless driving.

After being taken back to his cell he slashed his wrists with a razor blade and was rushed to the Clinic building for treatment. He was returned to jail and taken to Vandalia early this morning.

Two youths yesterday pleaded guilty to destruction of property when arraigned in county court and were placed on probation for a year, with each to pay half of the $28.60 court costs. They are Ralph Stapleton, 21, and Dallas Williams, 18, charged with shooting locks on property belonging to Frank P. Parker.

The five children of Imogene Sullivan were found to be dependent following a hearing before Judge Choisser, who named Annabelle Melton, Child Welfare worker, their guardian. He left the children in the temporary custody of their mother.

Meek Applies For Old Job

CHICAGO (AP)—The board of directors of the Illinois Federation of Retail Assns. met today to vote on taking Joseph T. Meek back as president of the organization.

Meek resigned to run for the U. S. Senate on the Republican ticket and was defeated in the election last Tuesday by Democratic incumbent Sen. Paul H. Douglas.

Manie Pepper, Urbana, who became president of the federation when Meek left, offered earlier this week to resign so that Meek could have the job back.

Neighbor Woman Testifies Mrs. Sheppard Was Thinking of Divorce

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—A close friend of slain Marilyn Sheppard testified today that Mrs. Sheppard had told her that Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard, her husband, had given a watch to "a young lady in California" and had been thinking of a divorce.

Mrs. Nancy Ahern, one of the last persons to see Mrs. Sheppard alive, testified in Dr. Sheppard's murder trial as a state witness that Mrs. Sheppard gave her the information in April.

Last July 4, the state charges, the handsome, 30-year-old osteopath-surgeon bludgeoned his pretty wife to death after they had quarreled about his affairs with other women.

One of these, who has said she received a watch from Dr. Sheppard, was Susan Hayes, 24, a laboratory technician who had worked at Sheppard's Bay View Hospital.

The testimony was given over the repeated objections of Defense Atty. William J. Corrigan, who protested that the court was "allowing the conversation of a dead woman" to be heard. He said since nobody else was present at the conversation between Mrs. Sheppard and Mrs. Ahern, it was hearsay and therefore not admissible as evidence.

Common Pleas Judge Edward Blythin overruled the objection, saying: "It doesn't quite come within the hearsay category."

Asst. Prosecutor Thomas J. Parrino told the court he was bringing out the divorce talk to oppose the statement of the defense that "the last four or five months of Sam and Marilyn Sheppard's married life were the happiest."

Mrs. Ahern, a pretty, slightly plump housewife who was a neighbor of the Sheppards, was the third witness called by the state in its attempt to send Dr. Sheppard to the electric chair.

Mrs. Ahern's husband, Don, drew a picture Monday of an affectionate home and a friendly atmosphere between "Dr. Sam" and his wife in the hours just before the slaying. The Aherns had dinner at the Sheppard home the evening of July 3.

Ahern, a tall, slim, businessman, testified Monday that he had gone swimming, water skiing, and played basketball with Sheppard, a 30-year-old, athletic osteopath surgeon, for a year. During that time, he testified, he never had seen Sam lose his temper.

The testimony went straight to

Only Two Vote GOP Majority in New Illinois House

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—Gov. William G. Stratton will have only a two vote Republican majority in the Illinois House next year.

Official canvasses Monday finally determined the 1955 House will consist of 79 GOP members and 74 Democrats, with 77 votes needed for a majority.

Republicans have controlled the House since 1950. In 1953, Stratton had a comfortable 86-67 majority.

The final race bearing on the House split was settled Monday when, on the basis of the Macon county canvass, Democrat Robert McCarthy, Lincoln, was declared winner over Republican James Atkins, Decatur, in the 28th Senatorial district.

DuMont Network May Be Dissolved

Possible Action Revealed by Secretary Dulles

Says Preventive War by U. S. Wholly Out of Question

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State John Foster Dulles revealed today that the United States is considering providing fighter escorts for American planes in the Far East to prevent a repetition of Sunday's incident in which Soviet MIGs shot down a U. S. B29 over northern Japan.

At his first capital news conference in two months, Dulles also declared that it is wholly out of the question for the United States to consider any idea of a preventive war with Russia.

He said such an idea is not any part or parcel of American foreign policy.

While the secretary took a grave view of the plane incident and accused Russia of lying about it, he said he did not believe Russia has any intention of starting a war now against the free world. May Take Incident to UN

He said the United States is considering taking the latest plane incident to the United Nations. He also left open the possibility that it would be taken to the International Court of Justice.

The United States already has sent a sharp protest note to Russia, demanding "moral and material reparations" for the attack which this country said occurred "over Japanese territory." Ten crew members of the B29 parachuted to safety but an eleventh was killed.

Dulles spoke out after Senate Republican Leader William F. Knowland and Sens. Styles H. Bridges (R-N.H.), Everett M. Dirksen (R-Ill.) and John J. Sparkman (D-Ala.) denounced the attack in vigorous terms and demanded that the United States take stern measures to prevent a repetition.

Bridges said the Air Force should order U. S. planes to "shoot to kill" if fired upon.

Dulles said that U. S. pilots already have standing orders to fire on attackers. He said these orders have been in effect for some time. The plane shot down Sunday did not return the fire and its pilot was rebuked by his commander in Japan.

Dulles at his news conference also:

1. Reiterated his belief that future negotiations with Russia on Germany and Austria would be unprofitable until the new agreements on Germany are ratified.

2. Said he was dissatisfied with the way the Communists are carrying out the Geneva truce agreements in Indochina.

3. Opposed making public the whole record in the case of John Paton Davies Jr., career diplomat whom Dulles dismissed earlier this week on grounds that he lacked "judgment, discretion and reliability." Davies had asked that the whole file be made public, including a recommendation he made in 1950 for a "preventive show-down" with Russia.

Key to the Whole Western Defense Problem

The WASHINGTON
MERRY-GO-ROUND
By DREW PEARSON

DREW PEARSON SAYS:
Election Bitterness Is Deep;
Democrats Won't Forget Nixon Tactics; Backstage Byplay On Election Night Is Forgotten,
But Not The Scars Of The Campaign.

WASHINGTON. — Millions of TV viewers saw what went on in Republican and Democratic headquarters on election night—as far as the formal statements and outside congratulations were concerned. But not many saw the suspense, the headaches and the heartaches inside both party headquarters as the up-and-down returns rolled in.

What happened there gives insight regarding the depth of party bitterness and the problems of the future.

So here is a quick look-see at some of the backstage events the television cameras missed:
Democratic Headquarters—Real Democratic inner sanctum was on Steve Mitchell's elaborate suite on election night but the small single-room hideaway of ex-Senate Secretary Les Biffle. . . here a select inner circle of top Demos were saying what they really thought as each bit of news flowed across Bif-fle's desk. . . here was a tiny radio tuned into NBC where the news slant was definitely pro-GOP. Two telephones rang intermittently, and those in the room strained their ears to catch Les Biffle's soft, unemotional voice. . . around him
sat John Horne, Sam Brightman, Ken Birkhead, Joseph Keenan, former Justice Department official who prosecuted the Japanese war criminals. Steve Mitchell, between handshaking and radio-TV appearances, joined the group.

The zero hour was between 3 and 4
a. m. Senator Clements called from Kentucky. "We're in the closest race since 1916," he said.
(That was the year Charles Evans Hughes went to bed thinking he was President, only to wake up next morning to find Woodrow Wilson elected.) . . . Someone put a slip of paper in Biffle's hand.
Carroll had conceded in Colorado.
The Democrats had counted him a sure winner. Gillette was licked in Iowa. . . A CBS television commentator had erroneously reported Senator Murray 2,000 behind with almost all the votes counted in Montana. Biffle picked up the phone. Charlie Murray, son of the senator, on the line from Butte, reported all's well in Montana. The TV report had been wrong — Murray ahead by 2,000 votes. Cracks Steve Mitchell. "We win by a landslide in Montana."

New Jersey slips. "Someone from Wyoming called: 'O'Mahoney ahead by more than a thousand — we're in.' " "Another landslide for us," commented the cas-trophe. He put the receiver down. . . reported the NBC commentator: "Saltonstall takes the lead from Furcolo in Massachusetts." It's nearly 4 o'clock.
"Get Mrs. Furcolo at the state house," says Biffle to his secretary, Betty Darling. Mrs. Fur-colo says there is still a chance if they don't steal it. . . Mrs. Stanley Woodward, wife of the former ambassador, sticks her head in the door. "Steve, what's going on — I can't figure it out." "Understatement of the evening," someone quips. . . Reports from New Jersey are coming in at a terrifying pace. Howell, with a 97,000 lead with nearly 90 per cent of the voting districts in, was counted a sure winner. "I called Governor Meyner," says Steve Mitchell,
"and told him to get the state police to lock up the boxes. They're pulling a fast one on us in Jersey.
With strange, unnatural regularity, every box is being reported 400 votes against us."

George Bender of the GOP takes a substantial lead in Ohio. Joe Keenan, who lived in Cleveland, can't understand why Cuyahoga county is holding back. "Maybe they want to see what Hamilton county (Cincinnati) will do for Bender." . . In Michigan, GOP Senator Ferguson is leading, but the farm areas are not piling up commanding lead he needed to lick McNamara. Wayne county (Detroit) has only reported 20 per cent. "The Democrats are not going to let them get away with another steal like the one they pulled upstate on Blair Moody last time," says Sam Brightman.

Oregon Up — Biffle is restless.
Mitchell is cheerful, reasonably optimistic. . . NBC reports that Chairman Hall concedes victory for the Democrats in the House.
A slip of paper is handed Bif-fle. He passes it around. Batista wins his election in Cuba by 87 per cent of the vote. "Let's charter a plane and go to Havana," says the nervous Mitchell.

Charles Murray, son of the senator, calls back. He had just talked to O'Mahoney, and Joe thinks he's in Oregon whittling down Cor-don's lead of 4,000. . . Joe Keenan says Cuyahoga county and Wayne county should determine the Ohio and Michigan elections. If the Democrats win either one they will organize the Senate. . . Ken Harding of the Democratic House Election Campaign committee comes in.

"We're 35 votes ahead in the third district in Oregon. Mrs.
Edith Green will be the first Democratic Congresswoman ever elected from Oregon." . . And Mc-Carthy's double in the House, Congressman Kersten, has been sunk by Henry Reuss in Milwaukee. . .
The Democrats began to feel better.

Democratic Bitterness — At 5 a.
m. Steve Mitchell quips: "Anything over a one-vote lead anywhere is a Democratic landslide."
General opinion: Joe Kennedy Sr., licked Furcolo in Massachusetts. When his son Jack Kennedy runs for re-election, the Massachusetts Italians will remember The church issue licked Carroll in Colorado. . . Harriman is worried that Dewey will try to steal New York on a recount. . . Governor Meyner was blamed by Mitchell for what happened in New Jersey.
"Carelessness — not intentional" was his description. . . Biffle was bearish all evening. Mitchell modestly bullish. Both were friendly. . . Biffle acted like a man ready to continue where Mitchell left off—when he steps down as national chairman.

At 6 o'clock the meeting adjourned with this consensus: "If Vice President Nixon hadn't pulled his Reichstag fire tactics, the Democrats would have done far better. If these tactics continue, American politics has something to worry about."

GOP Headquarters — It was about 4:15 a. m. Bald, roly-poly Chairman Len Hall was sitting in front of his TV set. Some of the evening's earlier gloom had disappeared. He was feeling much better, figured there was a good chance for the Republicans to carry the Senate, even retrieve some of those governorships that seemed to be slipping. . . Suddenly Steve Mitchell, Hall's Democratic counterpart, appeared on the TV screen. Hall listened. . . Boiling over with resentment at Nixon tactics, Mitchell read a statement reminding the electorate that the Democrats had waged a clean campaign, had not indulged in below-the-belt tactics. . . The more Mitchell talked, the redder Hall's face got. Finally he exploded.
"Nuts!" he said. . . Then he went into a private huddle with press advisers to figure out an answer to Mitchell. Three press agents, talking almost at once, urged him to hold off. . . "Who's listening at 5 a. m.?" they pleaded. "Tell them you'll give your answer at 11 a. m. Wait until people get out of bed in the morning." . . Finally Hall agreed. That was why a press spokesman went out front, told the press. "The chairman believes this is not quite the proper time to give his answer. We won't know the full story until tomorrow."

Ike's Problem — This bitterness points to Ike's greatest problem during the next two years.
Democrats like Speaker Sam Rayburn who have been in Congress for almost half a century are smarting with anger over being labeled traitors and warmongers who plunge the country into war to achieve prosperity. . . Rayburn has made a statement that he will cooperate with Eisenhower on foreign policy and national defense.
And he means it. . . But privately, not only "Mr. Sam" but other Democratic leaders will play things their own way on domestic policy unless Vice President Nixon drastically revises his tactics.

Like Having Clinic's Special Prescription FOR YOUR PILES

Of course, when you get an ointment for shrinking piles, you'd like a special prescription from a clinic, for your case. That's virtually what you get in Thornton Minor Clinic's ointment. All the experience of not one doctor but a full medical as well as surgical staff is behind it; it results from study of more than 75,000 cases seen in the clinic. So it is not just a "modified skin salve" but a specialized pile prescription designed to deal with specific problems of itching, bleeding, swelling, pain. If you want an aid to reduce piles the non-surgical way, use a clinicallyapproved prescription—Thornton

48 Women Sign Charter Of New Carrier Mills Club

Forty-eight women signed the charter of the Carrier Mills Woman's club, at the third and concluding organization meeting by the newly federated club which was held Monday, Nov. 8, at the Masonic temple in Carrier Mills.

Mrs. Roy Milburn, president of the 24th District, represented the Illinois Federation at the meeting and presented the charter of the new club, of which Miss Carrie Wasson is president. Mrs. P. L. Miller, district parliamentarian; Mrs. J. M. Hart, district music chairman; Mrs. Jacob W. Myers, county president; and Mrs. C. C. Porter, district vice-president and chairman of extension, were elected to learn that the new club is 100 percent in subscription to "Illinois Club Woman," the official publication of the Federation, which is of great value, particularly to beginning club women.

Miss Wasson appointed department chairmen and standing committees as follows: Mrs. Van McDonald, International Relations; Mrs. Oscar Kingery, American Home; Mrs. W. H. Dean, Conservation and Gardens; Mrs. Guy Hunter, Education; Mrs. Fred Wasson, Legislation and American Citizenship; Mrs. Gus McDonald, Literature and Art; Mrs. Mabel Chamness, Motion Picture, Radio and Television; Mrs. Juanita Campbell, Mental Health and Public Welfare; Mrs. F. F. Pankey, membership; Mrs. Harry Fife, program; Mrs. Earl Spears, flowers; Mrs. Harry Monroe, scrap book; Mrs. James Thornton, Park Ridge; Mrs. F. D. Pankey, Trail Rangers; Mrs. Jade Chase, press and publicity; Mrs. Selma Nolen, Veterans service; Mrs. Stella Vance, Illinois Club Woman; Mrs. Ernest Ammon, youth conservation, and Mrs. Harry Tanner, Indian welfare.

Coffee and cookies were served by the club hospitality committee for November. Mrs. Harry Monroe played accompaniment for the opening song, which was led by Mrs. Ernest Ammon, who also gave the opening meditation. An invitation was extended by Mrs. Hart to the Carrier Mills women to form a chorus to take part in the music program at the meeting to be held at Carmi Dec. 9, by the board of the 24th District, at which an all-club chorus will sing a group of carols telling the story of the Nativity.

Women's Fellowship Meets With Mrs. Harold Boatright

The Christian Women's Fellowship of the First Christian church met at the home of Mrs. Harold Boatright, 915 South Land street, for its recent monthly meeting. The chairman appointed for Woman's Day program was Miss Bess Pemberton. Those participating in the World Call quiz were Mrs. Parker, Mrs. Frank Gray, Mrs. Adams and Mrs. Henry Lightfoot.

The devotional period was led by Mrs. Glen Daugherty with the theme, "—God is propitiation for our sins, not for ours only."

Mrs. Frelan Smith presented the lesson, "In Hearts of City's Needs," from main topic, "Remember Now the People." Mrs. Gray gave the topic, "Flanner House in Indianapolis," and Mrs. Parker gave the topic, "All People's Christian Church and Community Center of Los Angeles."

The meeting closed with missionary benediction. Those present other than mentioned above were Mrs. Carrie Young and Mrs. Maggie Daugherty, a visitor.

M/Sgt. Roy L. Butler returned home recently from Japan where he has been stationed for the past 18 months with the United States Air Force. Butler and his family plan to be here for the next two weeks, at the end of which time they will move to Rantoul, Ill., where he will be stationed at Chanute Air Force base as an instructor.

Woman's Club Honors Five Charter Members With Annual Library Tea

A large group of women were present yesterday afternoon for the library tea sponsored by the Harrisburg Woman's club. The affair, which was in honor of the five charter members, Mrs. J. B. Blackman, Mrs. John B. Lee, Mrs. G. G. Mugge, Mrs. Herman Towle, all of Harrisburg, and Mrs. Harry Taylor, Indianapolis, Ind., was held in the club room of the public library.

The tea table was beautifully decorated with a large bouquet of bronze and yellow daisy chrysanthemums encircled with five miniature arrangements of chrysanthemums centered with yellow candles. Other bouquets of fall flowers graced the piano and officers' table, and a large basket of pyrocanthia and multi-colored autumn leaves was placed on the stage.

The song, "Faith of Our Fathers," was directed by Mrs. Joseph M. Hart who asked that the group substitute "founders" for the word fathers to fit the occasion. Mrs. J. J. Klein led in "The Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag."

Mrs. Ed Gaskins, program chairman, presented Mrs. C. E. Wing who gave the meditation entitled "Count Your Blessings," stating that we should be thankful for the mercies of life and for the many things that we have instead of complaining about our grievances. Mrs. L. N. Davenport, accompanied by Mrs. Hudson Mugge, sang "Thanks Be to God."

A tribute to the charter members was given by Mrs. J. A. Bottomley who said that their ideals would ever be a beacon along our paths. She also paid tribute to those who had passed on since the club had been organized and closed by reading "A Tribute" by Jane Noel Corwell.

The response was given by Mrs. Blackman who reminisced through the happenings from the first president of the club to the present one. "Organization of the Library" was presented by Mrs. Nelle Meyers who told of the beginning of the building in 1908 and of the dedication to the public in 1909 and of the two men who made it possible, John W. Mitchell and Andrew Carnegie. The library was built for $12,000.

Mrs. D. H. Hiller with Mrs. Richard Parker at the piano led the group in singing several of "yesterday's songs."

Following the adjournment of the meeting a tea was enjoyed with dainty sandwiches, cookies, nuts and spiced tea being served.

Four books for the memorial shelf in the library were given by Mrs. Herman Towle in memory of Mrs. M. S. Whitley, Mrs. John B. Lee in memory of Mrs. F. M. Pruett, Mrs. Harry Taylor in memory of her husband, Harry Taylor, and Mrs. J. B. Blackman in memory of Dr. and Mrs. John W. Mitchell and Mrs. W. F. Scott, first president of the Woman's club.

Mrs. Evelyn Gerkenmeyer, daughter of Mrs. Berry Crebs, Stonefort, is spending a two weeks' vacation with relatives in Harrisburg and Stonefort. She is at her mother's apartment house, at 605 North Main street.

Madness In The Spring
By Elvira Darniston

THE STORY: Greg Seaver, 26, feels that there is something in life he is missing. He is working for his vigorous, dogmatic stepfather, Horace Crain. Greg's future is secure, but he doesn't want security. Taking his pen in hand, Greg writes an advertisement offering himself as a young man "anxious to give up a job with a future for a job with a present."

There were five answers to Greg's advertisement. The first two letters were offers to do house-to-house canvassing on a commission basis. The third was a request for his apartment if he decided to move. The fourth was from a woman who thought his advertisement revealed a restless soul. She seemed hopeful that together they might do something about that.

The fifth letter was written on heavy stationery with the name Wade Daggett engraved at the top and an address in the Waldorf Towers. "Come to see me Friday evening at 9," it read. Greg was about to toss this after the others when he reflected that he had nothing to do on Friday so what could he lose?

When he walked up Park Avenue on Friday evening, after stopping at the oyster bar at Grand Central Station for dinner, the Lever Building gleamed like a tower of green glass. As always it seemed to Greg to balance precariously on slender glass legs. Unending lines of traffic were spewed out of the mouth of the tunnel at 45th Street. Taxis loaded and unloaded in front of the big hotels whose doormen waved their arms and pocketed tips. New York looked incredibly prosperous and assured.

While he waited in the lobby of the Waldorf Towers to be announced to Mr. Daggett's apartment—"the man about the advertisement"—he wondered why he was doing this. Perhaps Daggett was a practical joker. Instead, he was told, "Mr. Daggett is expecting you."

The door was opened by a middle-aged woman in the uniform of a trained nurse. "You the young man?" Her voice was as starched as her cap. "You may go in," she said, and when he had passed her she closed the door behind him.

The room was pleasant, with a deep rug and somber draperies drawn across the windows, day-enport and comfortable chairs. There were flowers in vases on tables and on the mantelpiece above the empty grate. An armchair was drawn up near the fireplace and the man who sat in it put down a highball glass and watched Greg come toward him. Every light in the room had been turned on so that his face was brilliantly illuminated. Greg's instinct was to look away but he reached Daggett without a break in his pace, his eyes steady.

Wade Daggett was paralyzed, his face twisted as though a giant hand had pressed against his left cheek, moving his features to the right. He watched Greg with an expression that was partly dread, partly defiance. He spoke and his voice was deep and resonant, revealing an unexpected and ardent energy burning behind the dead face.

"Sit down. Make yourself comfortable." He reached for his highball. "Oh, fix yourself a drink. You'll find the stuff over there," and he indicated a well-stocked bar in a corner.

Greg tipped some scotch into a glass, added ice cubes and water, taking his time so that he could regain his equilibrium before he had to look again at the man with the twisted face. Someone else might write a blind ad and walk into an adventure. It took him to land in the Grand Guignol.

He brought his glass back and sat down opposite his host. He was able to notice other things now. Wade Daggett was in his late sixties and overweight. He sat with his plump left hand folded over the smaller, thinner right one. Greg steeled himself to look up impassively and meet the old man's eyes. They watched him warily, alert for the first sign of flinching or distaste.

"What's your name, young man?"

"Gregory Seaver, sir."

"Friends call you Greg?"

"Yes, sir."

The older man seemed uncertain how to conduct the interview. To avoid making the old man uncomfortable by looking at his face, he glanced casually around the room but its impersonality defeated his attempt to learn anything about Daggett beyond the fact that he must be a man of means.

"What's this job you are so anxious to get out of?"

Greg told him and the old man's lips puckered and straightened out again while he listened. At his first appalled glance Greg had thought that he would never be able to look at the blasted face without wincing and yet he was already more interested in the man than in the deformity.

"It's not really a bad job as jobs go," he concluded. "And they have a pension system."

"That's security," Daggett pointed out.

"I know it is," Greg's conscience sniffed indignantly. He ignored it. "Somehow the idea of struggling along just so you can be put out to pasture—"

"You want to do your grazing now, is that it?"

But that was not it either. Greg did not want things easy. He just wanted to get somewhere. The trouble was that he did not know where he wanted to get. As it was, he felt like a donkey on a treadmill with a wisp of hay in front of him. He kept plodding but he never caught up with the hay. But because he did not know how to explain all that he remained silent.

Found Guilty Of Selling Postal Promotions

CHICAGO (AP) — Frederick Wall, 39, former secretary to Rep. William Dawson (D-Ill.) was found guilty today of selling promotions in the Post Office.

Wall was convicted by a jury which found him guilty of taking $400 from Elmer Beard Nov. 26, 1949, and a similar amount from Robert Birdson Feb. 14, 1950, for Post Office job promotions.

Federal Judge Julius J. Hoffman scheduled Friday for arguments on a new trial and freed Wall on $2,000 bond. He is subject to imprisonment for a year and a $1,000 fine.

Wall, indicted more than a year ago, was acquitted last summer with three women defendants in a trial on similar charges.

Forest Areas in Southern Illinois Can Be Profitable, Lane Tells Rotarians

Thirty-one members and seven guests were present at the weekly luncheon meeting of the Rotary club held yesterday in the Masonic temple. Speaker for the program was Richard Lane, forester in charge of the Central State Forest Experimental Station, Carbondale Research Center.

Mr. Lane was introduced by Paul Halberstam. Other members of the forestry service present and introduced were E. N. Lee, supervisor Shawnee National Forest; Ernest Kunze, district forester; Ben A. Roach, superintendent Kaskaskia experimental forest; J. F. Hosner, instructor in forestry, SIU; Robert Nelson, extension forester, U. of I.; and Lou Weber, Illinois Coal Stripper Assn. forester.

During the program, several slide-charts were shown giving data on the area in which these forestry men are particularly interested—the 16 Southern Illinois counties. It was pointed out by one chart that this area has low income, receives a greater amount of unemployment compensation and also has a heavier concentration of forests.

The latter, the speaker emphasized, did not cause the former two, and although some folks view the area as less desirable, it was also revealed that the forest areas could be made profitable and beneficial.

There are approximately 1,792,000 acres of prospective and definitely recognized commercial forest lands in these 16 counties, Mr. Lane said. Of these only about one-fourth are publicly owned. The remainder is owned by private individuals.

The objective of the forestry program is to interest these owners in treating their forest areas as another crop, learning to eliminate the trees needing removal and to replant for future harvests. It is also the hopeful objective of the service to aid in finding markets for the harvested wood.

Upon the conclusion of his short talk, the speaker called for questions from the members and several interesting ones were presented. Most of the southern Illinois timber crop is hardwood, more adaptable to furniture and the box industry. Mr. Lane also stated that it was the low quality hardwood for which little or no market existed. The top quality hardwoods are finding more markets each year.

President John Foster reminded members that Ladies' Night would be observed Nov. 22 at 6:30 p. m. Mike Polich, Chicago, was a guest of D. H. Hiller.

Kansas City Becomes Majors' Western Outpost

NEW YORK (AP)—Kansas City, a rip-roaring frontier town in covered wagon days, became the last western outpost of major league baseball today—perhaps for years to come.

The movement of the Philadelphia Athletics franchise to Kansas City Monday was expected to bring stabilization to the major leagues. It was the third switch of a franchise within two years after more than a half century in which the baseball map was undisturbed. But when Kansas City took over the distressed franchise of the Athletics, it also became apparent that any further moves for the time being were out of the question.

In the first place, no other city seeking major league recognition, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Dallas, Houston, Minneapolis and St. Paul, Toronto or Montreal, is ready with the proper facilities.

In the second place, there is now no major league team which has undergone such financial setbacks as the Boston Braves of two years ago, the St. Louis Browns of last year, or the Philadelphia Athletics of the just completed 1954 season.

There was speculation that Lou Boudreau, recently deposed manager of the Red Sox, and Parke Carroll, general manager of the Kansas City Blues, might be summoned for those two positions with the new Athletics.

Arnold Johnson, 47-year-old Chicago millionaire, also had another little problem on his hand. Suddenly, after Monday's operations, he owned three ball parks. And right away he has to dispose of all of them.

Too Many Parks

The first big stipulation in the approval of Johnson as a club owner and Kansas City as a new locale by the American league, was that he had to sell Yankee Stadium. He agreed to dispose of his holdings. But in buying the stock, mortgages and physical holdings of the Mack family in Philadelphia, he also acquired Connie Mack Stadium. And he already owned Blues Stadium in Kansas City where his A's will play next season.

The American league gave him 90 days to dispose of Yankee Stadium, but he thought he could do it much more quickly than that. He also expects to sell his newly-acquired Philly ball park in a few days to Bob Carpenter, the owner of the National league Philadelphia franchise. And city officials in Kansas City already arranged to relieve him of his responsibility there by taking over the ball park after voting a bond issue to expand the park.

NEW BRITAIN, Conn. — (AP) — Mayor Edward B. Scott practiced what he preached when he urged the city to cut expenses. During his first four months in office, Scott did not spend any of his $100-a-month expense account.

DiMaggio Dodges Talk of Possible Reconciliation

HOLLYWOOD —Former baseball star Joe DiMaggio dodged talk of a possible reconciliation today while visiting his divorced wife, film star Marilyn Monroe, who underwent surgery to correct a female ailment.

"Please just say we're very good friends," DiMaggio told reporters outside Miss Monroe's room at Cedars of Lebanon hospital. "I'd rather you didn't ask me about that (reconciliation)."

The shapely actress, who underwent a half hour of minor surgery Monday, was reported in "satisfactory" condition by Dr. Leon Krohn, who said her disorder had caused her suffering and had interfered with her movie work.

She is expected to leave the hospital in about two or three days.

Bull Dogs Play Benton Rangers at Taylor Field Thursday Afternoon

Will Battle for Second Place in South Seven Race

The Armistice will not be in effect for a couple of hours Thursday afternoon at Taylor Field, where the Harrisburg Bull Dogs and the Benton Rangers will battle it out for second place in the South Seven football race. Starting time for this holiday encounter is 2 p. m.

Right now Harrisburg has a 3-1-1 mark in the standings and Coach Ralph Davison will bring a team to town that is 3-1-0. He also is bringing a team to town that is big, fast and experienced and has dropped only one contest all year.

That lone defeat was at the hands of league-leading Centralia, which the Orphans won, 32 to 13. Benton Winner in 1953

Notre Dame Lines Up With Big 10 In Opposing NCAA

CHICAGO —Notre Dame Athletic Director Ed Krause lined up with the Big Ten universities today against the "game of the week" football television policy of the National Collegiate Athletic Assn.

Krause took up his oft-repeated charge that the NCAA television policy is "artificial and reactionary" at a meeting of the Quarterback Club Monday.

Krause said Notre Dame believes regional television of grid games would be "a step in the right direction."

"We at Notre Dame would like all football games to be televised but never have planned to do so," Krause said.

The Big Ten universities have opposed the NCAA TV policy for some time and argued for regional telecasts.

Krause said he did not believe pro football was gaining favor at the expense of the college variety, but "I do think the pros are doing a better job of selling their product through television."

Harrisburg on the other hand, although doing pretty well in the conference, has lost all three of its non-conference tilts to have a mark of three wins, four losses and one tie in overall play.

Benton, which beat Harrisburg, 27 to 6, last year, has lots of its boys back who figured in the win. Among them are Carol Sanders, 190-pound halfback who ran wild against the locals in 1953 on the Benton field. Other backfield men include Joe Atteberry, 155 pounds, Don Dillon, 195, and Ed Fredette, 180. Phil Southern, 142, is another experienced back who returned. And the line has plenty of size in an aggregation that included 13 returning lettermen when the season started.

The powerful Benton aggregation, in winning seven and losing one game so far, has piled up 195 points to 99 for its opposition. This makes an average of 24.4 points per game compared with 12.4 for the foe.

Benton started off the season beating Carmi, 12 to 7, then dropped the 32 to 13 contest to Centralia. Following were six straight victories as follows: Benton 27, Marion 6; Benton 32, Eldorado 6; Benton 27, Herrin 7; Benton 41, Cairo 14; Benton 25, Mt. Vernon 14; Benton 18, Salem 13.

Although Harrisburg, on paper, does not rate with Benton on strength and depth, Coach Lawrence Caluetti has a good team, playing very well on defense and showing offensive strength at times.

Harrisburg has made 88 points to 117 for the opposition, averaging 9.8 points per game to 14.6 for the other teams. Harrisburg has beaten Marion, 25 to 7, Mt. Vernon, 6 to 0, and West Frankfort, 12 to 0. Losses were 13 to 0 to Murphysboro, 19 to 13 to Eldorado, 30 to 6 to Centralia and 28 to 0 to Assumption.

In the last outing, at West Frankfort, the Bull Dog line was exceptionally good in stopping Frankfort running plays before they could get under way and the secondary was better than usual on pass defense.

Also, Charles Wright, lanky junior, came into his own as a runner in that contest, piling up the best yardage of the evening.

Carrier Mills Wildcats to Open Cage Season Friday; Homecoming Tilt Saturday

With the opening of the season just a few days away, Coach Claude Shelton at Carrier Mills is still looking for three players to round out his first ten.

At present he has a first seven and a second seven, with two others considered good prospects when they are ready to go.

"We are lacking in height where we have experience, and need more experience where we have height and don't have much of either," is the way Coach Shelton referred to his squad recently.

From the first seven only one—Oliver Rollins—tops the six foot mark. "Big Rube," a junior with two years of varsity experience, stands about 6'2 1/2". Next in line in the "tall department" is Max Berns at 5 feet 11 inches.

Two other prospects, Lawrence Colfield, a sophomore, and Vernon Rollins, a freshman, top six feet, but are lacking in experience.

As the situation now stands, Shelton is looking to Rollins, Berns, George Allen, Jerry Sweat, Richard Hill, James Reid and Harold Fitts to carry the load.

Next in line are Gene Shado-wens, J. C. Storms and Don Absher, juniors; Jackie Cowger, Jimmie Kouse and Lawrence Colfield, sophomores, and freshman Vernon Rollins.

Two others that should help the squad are Terry Gullede, a junior, who is recovering from an automobile injury and may not be ready to run for some time, and Charles Lail, a sophomore, who will not be eligible until the start of the second semester.

Carrier Mills faces one of, if not the toughest, schedules in the school's history, meeting such "toughies" as Mt. Vernon, Pinckneyville, Johnston City and Harrisburg all away from home.

The season gets underway Friday with Carrier Mills at Norris City, then the home season starts on Saturday, with Rosiclare calling at the Wildcat gym.

The Saturday night game is the annual homecoming affair and will be one of the many activities planned for a big week end.

At Carrier Mills all preliminary games are scheduled for 6:45 and the varsity tipoff time is listed for 8:15.

Looking AT Sports

By BILL MELTON
 The Arkansas Razorbacks are making things rough in the South-west Conference, and they're one of the top rated teams in the country, ranking with such powers as UCLA, Ohio State, Oklahoma and Notre Dame. But over the past 12 years, they haven't been rated as one of the top teams in winning games. We'll get back to that in question No. 1 of The Sporting News Sports Quiz after a briefing on the scoring rules.

You get four choices. Mark them 1-2-3-4. If you're right on a first pick you're good for ten points, five for a second, three for a third and one for a correct fourth. Twenty points is average—forty is very good. Fifty—you're perfect!

UCLA, Ohio State Rated Top Grid Teams; Iowa, Navy Advance to First 10

NEW YORK — UCLA pulled further away from Ohio State and Oklahoma today in the three-team race for the national college football championship while Iowa and Navy advanced among this week's top 10 in the United Press ratings.

The powerful Bruins from the Pacific Coast Conference, who have averaged nearly 42 points per game in scoring eight straight victories, were the first-place choice of 26 coaches on the 35-man United Press rating board.

UCLA's point-total of 338 was only 12 short of a perfect score and the highest compiled by any team this season. Of the coaches who did not vote the Bruins tops this week, six picked them second and three for third.

That support widened UCLA's margin from 17 to 28 points over

Ohio State and from 28 to 56 points over Oklahoma. Ohio State attracted seven first-place ballots and 310 points; Oklahoma had two first place votes and 282 points. Both have won seven in a row.

UCLA, with a chance for the first perfect season in its football history, takes next Saturday off before winding up its schedule Nov. 20 against Southern California (ranked seventh this week). That game also should settle the PCC championship although Coach Henry (Red) Sanders' men are not eligible for the Rose Bowl because they played last New Year's Day.

A comparatively formful week-end left the top six teams in the exact same order of the previous week, Arkansas, Army and Notre Dame following third-ranked Oklahoma in that order. Southern California and Mississippi each moved up one notch to seventh and eighth, respectively, and then came Iowa and Navy to round out the top 10.

Iowa, moving up from 12th to ninth place, and Navy, jumping from a tie for 18th to the 10th ranking, replaced Purdue and Miami, Fla. among the select group.

With points awarded on a 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 scale for each vote from first to 10th place, Arkansas had 243 points, moving within striking distance of the leaders after its seventh straight triumph; Notre Dame had 177 points, Army 155, Southern California 92, Mississippi 83, Iowa 65 and Navy 59.

Ohio State, Oklahoma and Arkansas, the three teams ranked behind first place, each can clinch a tie for its conference championship next Saturday. Ohio State plays 15th ranked Purdue; Oklahoma faces Missouri; and Arkansas meets Southern Methodist. Except for Iowa, which is pitted against 12th ranked Minnesota, the other teams among the top 10 appear to have easy pickings. Next week-end finds Notre Dame against North Carolina, Army vs. Pennsylvania, Southern California vs. Washington, Mississippi vs. Houston, and Navy vs. Columbia.

Wisconsin, seeking to regain a place among the top 10, moved up to 11th place this week, followed by Minnesota, Baylor and Miami, Fla. Purdue and Southern Methodist were tied for 15th and then came Cincinnati, Miami, O. and West Virginia in order. Michigan and Penn State were tied for 20th.

Nebraska, Rice, Maryland, Georgia and Michigan State also received points in this week's voting.

Bull Pups Score 32-0 Win Over West Frankfort

The Harrisburg Bull Pups rolled up 243 yards from scrimmage at Taylor Field last night to defeat the West Frankfort freshmen-sophomore gridders, 32 to 0.

The locals, who made 12 first downs to four for Frankfort, made a net 166 yards rushing and 77 passing, completing three out of nine forwards. Frankfort made a net 50 yards rushing and 44 passing. The opposition completed four out of 14 forward passes and had one intercepted.

Only times the Frankfort boys threatened was in the fourth quarter, when they moved to the H-7, only to lose the ball on downs, and at the end of the game, where they were on the H-20 as the contest ended. Both drives were made against the local reserves.

Harrisburg scored in the first period on a 15-yard pass play, Jim Cummins to Trevor Whiteside and on a one-yard smash, to make the count 13 to 0 as Ronnie Vick made one placekick. Another touchdown came in the second quarter on a 36-yard pass play, J. Cummins to Bill Henshaw.

Intercept Pass
 In the third period Henshaw intercepted a pass and ran to the WF-17 to set up the next score. The tally came on a five-yard run by J. Cummins after he had faked a pass. Vick kicked the extra point and the count was 26-0.

Final tally came in the fourth quarter on a four-yard smash by John Ziegler after a 27-yard jaunt by Whiteside and a 26-yard pass play. J. Cummins to Whiteside, put the ball in scoring position. Coaches Jim McKee started Benjie Fulkerson and Henshaw at ends, Dick Drue and Jimmy Lambert at tackles, Vick and Lou Williams at guards, Colen Eddy at center, J. Cummins at quarterback, Charles Cummins and Whiteside at halfbacks and Ziegler at fullback. Bob Shewmake was used at all times on defense and these following other boys saw action: Bob Clark, Gary Aldridge, Allen Buchanan, Mickey Stone, Eddie Price, Donald Biggs, Melvin Hicks, Dale Bryan, David Burnham, Dick Grammer, Ray Hassett, Zan Helmer, Cletus Killman, Bob Murrie, Curtis McCormick, Jack Simpson, Bill Yates and Henry Winters.

Ohio State and from 28 to 56 points over Oklahoma. Ohio State attracted seven first-place ballots and 310 points; Oklahoma had two first place votes and 282 points. Both have won seven in a row.

UCLA, with a chance for the first perfect season in its football history, takes next Saturday off before winding up its schedule Nov. 20 against Southern California (ranked seventh this week). That game also should settle the PCC championship although Coach Henry (Red) Sanders' men are not eligible for the Rose Bowl because they played last New Year's Day.

A comparatively formful week-end left the top six teams in the exact same order of the previous week, Arkansas, Army and Notre Dame following third-ranked Oklahoma in that order. Southern California and Mississippi each moved up one notch to seventh and eighth, respectively, and then came Iowa and Navy to round out the top 10.

Iowa, moving up from 12th to ninth place, and Navy, jumping from a tie for 18th to the 10th ranking, replaced Purdue and Miami, Fla. among the select group.

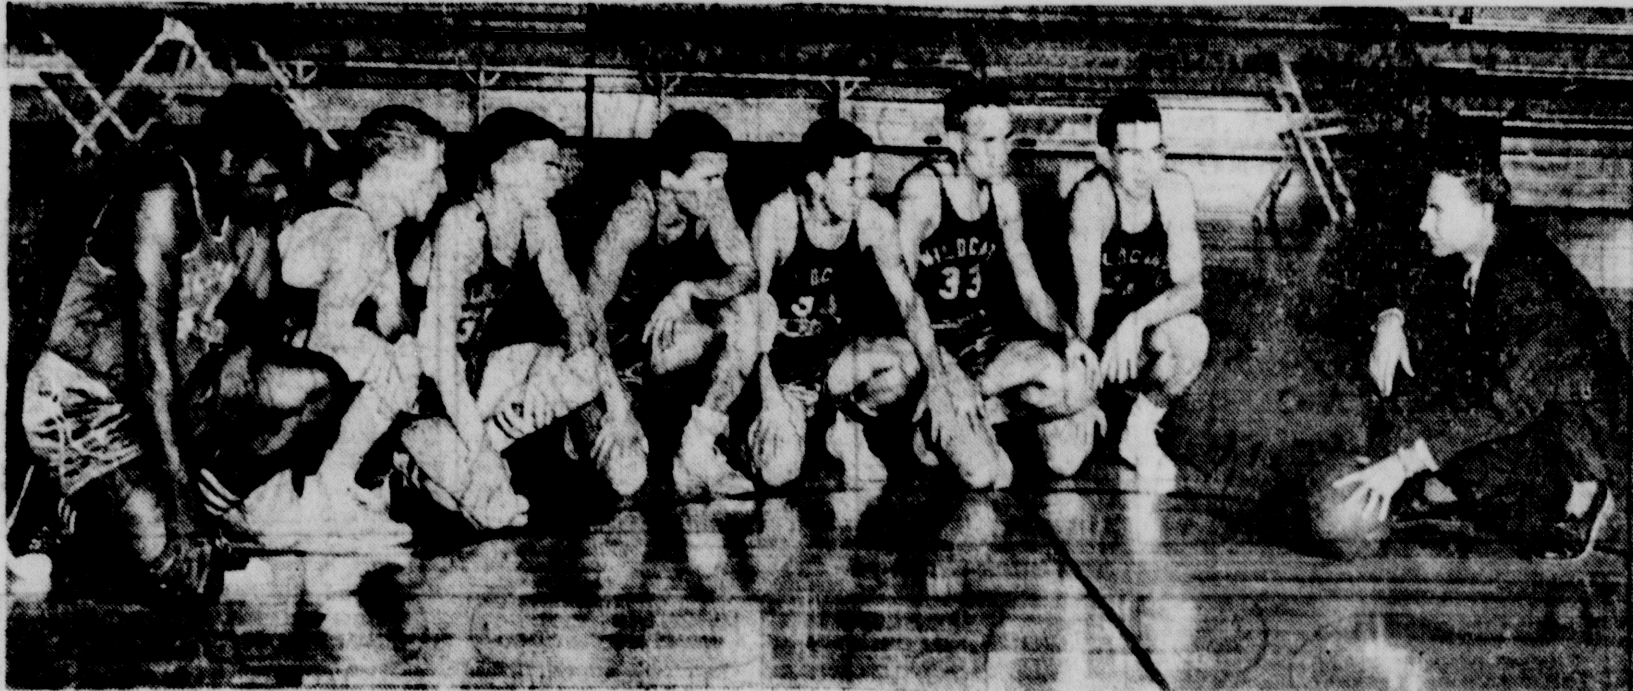

With points awarded on a 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 scale for each vote from first to 10th place, Arkansas had 243 points, moving within striking distance of the leaders after its seventh straight triumph; Notre Dame had 177 points, Army 155, Southern California 92, Mississippi 83, Iowa 65 and Navy 59.

Ohio State, Oklahoma and Arkansas, the three teams ranked behind first place, each can clinch a tie for its conference championship next Saturday. Ohio State plays 15th ranked Purdue; Oklahoma faces Missouri; and Arkansas meets Southern Methodist. Except for Iowa, which is pitted against 12th ranked Minnesota, the other teams among the top 10 appear to have easy pickings. Next week-end finds Notre Dame against North Carolina, Army vs. Pennsylvania, Southern California vs. Washington, Mississippi vs. Houston, and Navy vs. Columbia.

Wisconsin, seeking to regain a place among the top 10, moved up to 11th place this week, followed by Minnesota, Baylor and Miami, Fla. Purdue and Southern Methodist were tied for 15th and then came Cincinnati, Miami, O. and West Virginia in order. Michigan and Penn State were tied for 20th.

Nebraska, Rice, Maryland, Georgia and Michigan State also received points in this week's voting.

Final tally came in the fourth quarter on a four-yard smash by John Ziegler after a 27-yard jaunt by Whiteside and a 26-yard pass play. J. Cummins to Whiteside, put the ball in scoring position. Coaches Jim McKee started Benjie Fulkerson and Henshaw at ends, Dick Drue and Jimmy Lambert at tackles, Vick and Lou Williams at guards, Colen Eddy at center, J. Cummins at quarterback, Charles Cummins and Whiteside at halfbacks and Ziegler at fullback. CARRIER MILLS HIGH SCHOOL will enter the 1954-55 basketball season this Friday night and the bulk of the action will be seen by these seven players, Coach Claude Shelton indicates. From left to right, Oliver Rollins, Richard Hill, Jerry Sweat, Max Berns, George Allen, Harold Fitts, James Reid and Coach Shelton. (Register Staff Photo)

Ground F86 Sabre Jets at Air Base After Two Crashes

NELLIS AIR FORCE BASE, Nev. (UP)—The Air Force today grounded "indefinitely" all F86 Sabre Jet fighter planes at this base.

Two Sabre crashes Monday resulted in the death of a student pilot.

The grounding order was issued "as a precautionary move to inspect for technical order compliance."

Brig. Gen. James E. Roberts, base commander, said four F86 crashes in the past six months have been "so similar we feel the grounding is justified . . . we are curious about structural failures."

Catholics Flee Red Persecution in Northern Indochina

SAIGON, Indochina (UP)—France ordered seven warships to northern Indochina today to rescue thousands of Roman Catholic natives reported fleeing from Communist persecution.

The Catholic refugees were reported fleeing to the sea coast.

Reports reaching here said some 20,000 to 40,000 Catholic Vietnamese were attempting to escape by canoe, raft and "anything that floats."

The mass flight was said to have been sparked by a Red crackdown on religion behind the Geneva cease-fire line.
